User Survey Results

| Correlation components and their implications | Pearson's correlation coefficient |
|--|--|
| Internet vs Journals: Shows a high correlation for Internet and Journals as our library is procuring E-Journals mainly. The access is very efficient | 0.74 |
| Audiovisual materials vs webopac: The audio/visual materials are very well accessible through the Web-OPAC | 0.90 |

| | |
|--|--------|
| E-book vs Opac: There is some ineffectiveness in accessing the E-Book through the net. This is reflected by this value | 0.449 |
| Technical report vs Opac: Technical report description being an arduous task in OPAC, it is expected that the users are not able to find the most appropriate reports | 0.15 |
| Collection vs Opac: Though the collection is deemed to be good, the users are not satisfied with the description in the Web-OPAC | 0.0176 |
